

Pennsylvania Libraries: Research & Practice

News

Noteworthy

News Briefs from Pennsylvania Libraries

Clarion University

- Connie Gamaluddin, Reference Librarian and Coordinator of Public Services and Collection Development, retired in May 2013 after 35 years of service to Clarion University.
- Marilyn Stempeck, Cataloger and Database Management Librarian, retired in May 2013 after 30 years of service to Clarion University.
- Basil Martin, Reference and Instructional Services Librarian with 21 years of service to Clarion University, has accepted the responsibilities for coordinating public services and collection management activities.
- Mary Buchanan, Reference and Information Literacy Librarian, was granted tenure and promoted to Assistant Professor effective as of the upcoming academic year. She will also assume the leadership role for information literacy instruction programs.

Penn State University

*Emily Rimland,
Penn State University*

- Emily Rimland, Sally W. Kalin Librarian for Learning Innovations Information Literacy Librarian and Learning Technologies Coordinator at Penn State, has published an article in portal: Libraries and the Academy. "Assessing Affective Learning Using a Student Response System" will appear in the October 2013 issue (13.4) and discusses changes in students' confidence levels before and after library instruction as measured by a student response system, Poll Everywhere.